

PRESIDENT TO CURTAIL HIS BEAR HUNT

Important State Matters Demand Executive's Presence in Washington.

LOOMIS MAKES DENIAL

Changes are Contemplated in the American Ministers in Venezuela and Other Countries.

[By Telegraph to The Age]

Washington, April 28.—President Roosevelt will break camp in Colorado May 8, a week earlier than he had intended, and will start for Washington at once. The only stops he will make will be at Denver and Chicago, where the dates for his reception have been advanced to meet the new arrangement. Secretary Taft displayed no surprise when he learned of the president's plan to leave Colorado May 8, for it was known to him before the president left Washington that he was very doubtful of his ability to carry out his wish to remain in the hunting country until the middle of May. The president told Secretary Taft that he feared he could not remain longer than May and he consequently had formed an alternative program, based on that belief. There is no pressing emergency here requiring the immediate presence of the president. All of the facts relative to the Venezuelan situation have been disclosed to the public, and in the opinion of the officials here they do not justify any apprehension of a rupture in the immediate future. President Castro is making a tour of the interior of Venezuela in places inaccessible to the telegraph, and no instructions have been sent to Minister Bowen to make a further presentation to the Venezuelan foreign office, which might cause a crisis.

A change is contemplated soon in the American ministers in Venezuela, Panama, Colombia and Chile, with the purpose of relieving the tension which now exists at the capitals of some of those countries. It is believed by a proper re-arrangement of this kind and transfer of officials the relations between the Washington government and the governments of some of the countries named can be made closer and the conduct of business facilitated.

Loomis' Denial.
Denial of the charges affecting his official integrity while minister at Caracas was made by Minister Loomis, the acting secretary of state, in a statement given out by him at his residence. The statement briefly but emphatically denies in detail and in totality each and every charge. Mr. Loomis says: "I never asked nor received, directly or indirectly, in any manner or form, any money or property or other thing of value or any promise or suggestion thereof from

REPUBLICANS KEEP GOING IN SAME GOOD WAY

Contagious Enthusiasm Shown in Precinct Causes--Delegates.

If the enthusiasm at precinct caucuses is any indication of the future then the Republican party in Coshocton county never was in better shape for victory than right now. The enthusiasm that was shown at the city caucuses Wednesday evening continued last night in the First Ward caucus and in the township meetings. In every instance good men were chosen as delegates and the same wisdom prevailed in the selection of central committeemen. Tonight the caucus of Ward 2 A will be held. RIVERS BOYS RETURN TO PEN.

Alva and Verna Rivers and Jacob Decker, who were brought here to testify in the case of Victor Henderson, were taken back to the Ohio penitentiary by the two guards that brought them here, at noon Friday. A large crowd was at the depot and the criminals were watched with as much interest as when they were first taken away last fall.
Alva Rivers and Jacob Decker were not placed on the witness stand but Verna Rivers was questioned about the robbery in which, he claims, V. Henderson took part.

MRS. RENFREW DIES AT HER HOME IN CLEVELAND

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Renfrew received a letter Friday morning bringing the news of the death of Mrs. Mead Renfrew of Cleveland. She had been ill but a short time with stomach trouble and its attendant complications, and her death has come as a great shock to her family and friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Renfrew lived in Coshocton for a few years the former being associated in business with his brother, J. B. Renfrew of the Racket store but about two years ago went to Cleveland where they have since made their home.

HIGHWAYMAN IS CLEVER CARTOONIST

Frank Gorman the man with a string of aliases as long as the name of a Russian general, and concerning whose identity The Age gave exclusive news Thursday, is noted as a cartoonist. The fellow has natural ability to sketch and has amused himself and fellow mortals in the county jail by drawing clever pictures of different people and events. When he was in the penitentiary he was noted as the "Jim the Penman," of the institution. A Zanesville paper declares that the genuine name of "Red" Haughman, who is under arrest with Gorman in the local jail, is "George Whn."

New Coshoctonians.
Mrs. B. G. McCann of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, came today at noon to join her husband who has been employed for some time at the Racket store. They will take up their residence on South Second street. Mr. McCann is a cousin of Mrs. Renfrew.

Dogs Are Poisoned.
A score of dead dogs were found on the streets of Zanesville Friday morning, all dead from poisoning. The poisoner's work was effective. He might be balled to Coshocton for work on the stray canines that parade up and down Coshocton's streets.

W. Roy Adams, who has been ill with pneumonia in Pittsburgh has returned home to recuperate. He was accompanied by his mother.

NEW PROPRIETOR AT OAK HOTEL

George Hiser, who has taken charge of the Oak hotel on Hickory street which has been conducted by Robert Stevens, will have his opening Saturday evening. There will be music and lunch and he invites all his friends to pay him a visit. Mr. Hiser recently sold his half interest in the Tumbler and Hiser saloon in the alley back of the People's bank.

GEN. LEE STRICKEN

[By Telegraph to The Age]
Washington, April 28.—General Fitzhugh Lee, on his way from Boston to Washington, was stricken with apoplexy shortly after the train left Harlem river. His left side was affected. The train which reached Washington about 10 o'clock and was met by Secretary of War Taft, the surgeon general of the army and Dr. Lemon, physician of the Pennsylvania railroad. A physician was with General Lee on the train.

CANAL LEWISVILLE COMMENCEMENT

The commencement exercises at the Canal Lewisville M. E. church Thursday evening marked the close of a very successful year's work. Three graduates, Miss Gayle Kirkpatrick, Miss Florence G. Fisher and Miss Maggie L. Day, were presented with their diplomas by Prof. W. O. Renner, the superintendent.
An excellent address was delivered to the class by Prof. Wells, of West Lafayette college. Owing to the illness of Prof. Maughman the invocation and benediction were pronounced by Rev. Holdsworth.

ROJESTVENSKY HOLDS THE KEY

Wily Russian Masks Movements And Keeps Jap Strategists Guessing.

[By Cable to The Age]
Tokyo, April 28.—The last Japanese reports are conflicting and confusing. They do not indicate definitely the purpose of Admiral Rojestvensky, but it is evidently the intention of the Russian admiral to wait a junction with the division commanded by Admiral Nebogatoff, which increases the probability of his intention to give Admiral Togo a decisive battle. It is assumed that Rojestvensky will bring all the ships and guns possible into action if he intends to fight decisively or that he will detach and abandon his slow, cumbersome and useless ships if he intends to run the gauntlet at Vladivostok. It is believed that the location and date of the engagement will depend entirely on Rojestvensky.

Fighting in Manchuria.
London, April 28.—The news of the resumption of fighting in Manchuria is supposed here to show that the Japanese have decided not to wait the issue of the impending naval contest, but to utilize the few weeks intervening between the drying up of the roads and the arrival of the summer rains in June for the resumption of the land campaign. The completion of the railway to Mukden will greatly simplify Field Marshal Oyama's task of provisioning his vast army and will thus facilitate the renewal of hostilities. No further news has been received of either Rojestvensky's or Nebogatoff's squadrons.

Linevitch's Dispatch.
St. Petersburg, April 28.—General Linevitch, in a telegram to the emperor dated April 26, reports a three-hour fight April 23 near Tsintzintoun, the Russian cavalry forcing the Japanese to retreat.

W. S. CROWELL BECOMES PRES. OF A BANK

A copy of the Medford Mail, a paper published in Jackson, Oregon, has been received here conveying the information that at a meeting of the stockholders of the First National bank of Medford, W. S. Crowell, formerly of this city, was elected one of the members of the board of directors and that the directors elected him president of the institution, which is capitalized at $25,000.

Cambridge Odd Fellows.
The Odd Fellows of Cambridge formally celebrated the founding of the great order, April 26, with a fine program. Lodgesmen were there from all over southeastern Ohio. Miss Mabel Riggs of this city was on the program, and her recitation has aroused the most favorable comment of the Cambridge press.

KNOWLES IS LET OUT OF EQUITABLE

Superintendent of Agencies Loses Job Through Itch For Scribbling.

MAKES SHARP REJOINDER

Baltimore Policy Holder Makes Application for Appointment of a Receiver.

[By Telegraph to The Age]
New York, April 28.—H. H. Knowles was formally discharged from the Equitable Life Assurance society in a letter from President Alexander. Mr. Knowles was superintendent of agencies until a few weeks ago, when he was suspended by the president. Mr. Knowles' name was brought prominently into the Equitable controversy during the meeting of agents in this city 10 days ago. At that time he gave out an interview criticising President Alexander and Second Vice President Tarbell, and subsequently made charges against the latter in the newspapers. Mr. Knowles' notification of his discharge came to him in a letter which was signed by President Alexander.

Mr. Knowles sent the following reply to the president of the society: "I desire to state that I have carried out your orders as to vacating my former office in the society. How the mighty have fallen under the baneful influence of Tarbellism. You first, Mr. President, attempted, no doubt at the suggestion of Tarbell, chicanery and intimidation, by threats of discharging me, to get me out of the city. Failing in that, a few hours afterward you tried to work upon my sympathies, and the high regard that I had always entertained for you, to accomplish your purpose. That being ineffective, you tried suspension, and after 13 days, finding that this did not have the effect of stifling my voice and opinions against the Alexander-Tarbell plot and in behalf of the Equitable, you now add insult to injury by terminating my connection with the Equitable after 40 years of service, for no reason except my loyalty to what I considered the Equitable's best interests. I want to assure you, Mr. President, that this effort to stifle me will be as futile as your previous ones, for the high-handed, outrageous manner in which you treated me, at the instigation of Tarbell, more thoroughly convinced me of the danger to the body of policyholders of the Equitable Life if the plot succeeds in placing Tarbell in the position to ever assume the presidency of the Equitable."

Applies For Receiver.
Baltimore, April 28.—Michael J. Fitzsimmons, a local policyholder in the Equitable Life Assurance society of New York, applied for the appointment of a receiver for the Equitable.

CHICAGO STRIKE GAINS STRENGTH

More Firms Are Affected By Action of The Teamsters Union.

NON-UNION MEN ATTACKED

Employers Association Announces That it Will Fight to the Last For Open Shop.

[By Telegraph to The Age]

Chicago, April 28.—To all appearances Chicago is on the eve of one of the greatest strikes in her history. Several thousand teamsters are already out and accessions are being made hourly to their number. The Chicago Employers' association has taken a firm stand for the open shop, and promises a fight to the bitter end. The declaration made by the members of the Employers' association that they would promptly discharge teamsters who refused to deliver goods or call for them at the establishment of Montgomery Ward & Company brought out the teamsters' many downtown mercantile houses. Leading houses against which charges have been declared and the names of teamsters who have gone down each are as follows: Montgomery Ward & Company, 15; Dunham & Company, 24; Marshall Field & Company, 25; Carson Pirie Scott & Company, wholesale and retail, 75; J. V. Farwell & Company, 26; Wells Fargo Express company, 75; American Express company, 300; National Express company, 90; Pacific Express company, 60; United States Express company, 120; Adams Express company, 125; Forbes Cartage company, 220. This last concern involves a number of the largest business houses in Chicago, for whom it contracts to deliver goods.
Business agents of the teamsters' union declare that they will call on strike 1,000 truck drivers and thereby cripple to a large extent the entire transportation business in Chicago. It was declared also that drivers for grocery houses which delivered goods to any of the firms where a strike exists would be ordered to join in the lockout. While the labor leaders were in conference delegates of the Chicago Employers' association, the Commercial Exchange and representatives of outside industrial organizations met at the Union League club and declared that they would fight to a finish for the "open shop" in Chicago.

There was rioting in diverse parts of town. During the rows, three persons were seriously injured, two of whom will probably die. Richard Cummins, police sergeant, was run over by an automobile driven by John Owen, a union driver. Cummins will probably die.

DRESDEN TOT FELL IN CELLAR; NEARLY DROWNED IN BACK-WATER

Lawrence the four year old child of Attorney Darner of Dresden, had a narrow escape from drowning Thursday evening. He was playing in the yard and tumbled down the cellar steps. The cellar was full of water, the result of the high water in the river, and the child was inundated in two-feet of muddy water. Luckily his father happened to look into the cellar opening and saw the body. The child was resuscitated with difficulty, but is all right now.

Spark Starts Midnight Blaze In Cupola of Furnace Room.

Entire Plant Shuts Down Pending Repairs—Loss $1000—Fully Covered by Insurance.

At one o'clock Thursday night the fire bell gave notice that a blaze had been discovered in the foundry of the Houston Hay Axle company. The fire department responded promptly. Hose Cart No. 2 arrived in surprisingly short time. No. 1 and 3 arrived a few minutes later and No. 4 arrived but the fire was under control by this time.
The fire started, it is presumed from a spark, near the cupola in the south side of the foundry which occupies a separate building to the east of the main works. The heat in the cupola is taken off and the fire dumped out of the cupola about 4:30 every afternoon but a spark probably was all that was necessary to start the blaze.
George A. Hay, the president of the company, who lives near the axle works was on the scene a few minutes after the alarm was given. He saw the flames and

MANY PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womanhood is not because it is a stimulant, not because it is a palliative but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and reconstructive ever discovered to act directly upon the generative organs, positively curing disease and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures and physicians who have recognized the virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due.

If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ills, as they know by experience it can be relied upon to effect a cure. The following letter proves it.

Dr. S. C. Brigham, of 4 Brigham Park, Pittsburg, Mass., writes:
"It gives me great pleasure to say that I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound very efficacious, and often prescribe it in my practice for female difficulties. My oldest daughter found it very beneficial for uterine trouble some time ago, and my youngest daughter is now taking it for a female weakness, and is surely gaining in health and strength."

"I freely advocate it as a most reliable specific in all diseases to which women are subject, and give it honest endorsement."
Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhoea, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that bearing-down feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. No living person has had the benefit of a wider experience in treating female ills. She has guided thousands to health. Every suffering woman should ask for and follow her advice if she wants to be strong and well.

Rev. L. R. Akers, his text was 11-Corinthians 13-12. Maggie Cornell was born in Coshocton county, June 18, 1872. She was married to J. L. Perkins February 21, 1891. To this union, six children were given who with a husband, two sisters and a host of relatives are left to mourn their loss. She united with the M. E. church at the age of twelve and lived a Christian life. God called her home. For four weeks she struggled with the disease. The best of care from the beginning was bestowed upon her and devoted friends administered to every need. She bore her sickness without murmur and on last Monday morning as the sun was rising to fill the landscape with its beauty, her guardian angel came and waited her soul upward on snowy wings of peace to God. Her dying hour was an hour of triumph, and for her grave had no sting. She was a devoted wife and a loving mother.

Those attending the funeral from a distance were Dr. Wagoner and Mrs. Joseph McMann of Gambier, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller and daughter Mamie of Roscoe, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. WHEELED
SCROFULA
When a child I had a very severe attack of Diphtheria, which came near proving fatal. Upon recovery the glands of the neck were very much enlarged, and after the free use of iodine, the right one was reduced to its normal size, but the left one continued to grow—very slowly at first, until it was about the size of a goose egg, which began to press on the windpipe, causing difficult breathing, and became very painful. An incision was made and a large quantity of pus discharged. The gland was removed, or as much as could with safety be taken out. For ten years I wore a little piece of cloth about an inch long in my neck to keep the place open. During this time I had to have it cut open by the doctor every time I took cold or the opening clogged. In the Spring of early Summer of 1884 I was persuaded by my wife to use S. S. S., which I did, strictly in accordance with directions. I took twenty-six large bottles, and was entirely cured, for I have not suffered since that time.

L. O. T. M. Dance.

About two hundred and fifty people enjoyed the dance given by the ladies of the Maccabees Thursday evening in Forbes hall. The decorations were in keeping with the pleasures of the evening and the music furnished by the Shepler-Newton orchestra was a perfect inspiration. Among the dancers were two little tots, Misses Blanche Powell and Katherine Knisely of New Philadelphia who delighted all who saw them with the grace of their fancy dances. They are pupils of Prof. Lynch who is well known in Coshocton and have gone to Uhrichsville where they will dance tonight. There were cards for those who enjoyed the game and nothing was left undone to make the affair a happy one.
The ladies took in very near $100 and feel well repaid for their labors.

Sewed Carpet Rags.

The Ladies League of the Eleventh Street Church of Christ met with Mrs. Johnston Thursday evening and sewed a large quantity of carpet rags. They also discussed plans for their rummage sale which will be held in a few weeks.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. held an enthusiastic meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. I. T. Smith and the attendance was gratifyingly large in spite of the many cares of house cleaning at this period—a significant fact to the ladies. Excellent paper and discussions were presented by Mrs. St. Clair, Mrs. Timmons, Mrs. King, Mrs. Kerlin, Mrs. Aronholt and Mrs. Smith, while Mrs. Kerlin's solo "Press On," was one of the features of a happy meeting. The ladies are working hard for the petition to be presented to the legislature asking that women be allowed to vote in local option elections. Many are signing it in Coshocton and all over the state. The topic of the day was "Signs of Victory," and in that connection it was stated that Mt. Vernon, that went "wet" the other day had a record Saturday night of one murder and fourteen arrests: the village of Leipsic was quoted and it was said that taxes are lower and the town is more prosperous under dry regime than it ever was under the wet. Two banks exist instead of one, and the prosperity of the town has steadily increased. Another statement that proved interesting was that out of 1371 townships in Ohio more than 1000 are dry; of the 693 villages only 220 are wet; five entire counties and fourteen county seats are dry. These were given as unmistakable "signs of victory."

Pleasant Party.

Miss Anna Berton very pleasantly entertained a number of friends Thursday evening at her home in Willis Creek in honor of Mr. Lewis Grassbaugh. The evening was spent with music and games. Light refreshments were served.
The guests were: Misses Agnes Berton, Lulu Stagmyer, Ora Berton, Pearl Miller, Anna Berton, Grace Miller, Messrs. Jesse Stagmyer, Lewis Grassbaugh, Ernest Berton, Walter Stagmyer, Virgil Vensil, John Stagmyer.

Keene W. C. T. U.

The Keene W. C. T. U. held a business meeting Wednesday afternoon with the president, Mrs. Whittemore. Excellent reports of missionary and charitable work were given and the treasurer, Mrs. Endsley reported that the finances of the society were in an excellent condition. A rally was planned for the May meeting and an excellent address was given by Rev. Mr. Manning and very much appreciated by the ladies. Mrs. Whittemore makes an able leader and the influence of the society is for God.

Bryan in Illinois.

Galena, Ill., April 28.—William Jennings Bryan made the principal address at exercises here commemorating the eighty-third anniversary of the birth of General U. S. Grant. Many people were in the city from outside points, special trains being run on all railroads. The exercises were held in Grant park, which had been decorated for the occasion.

Bloody Clash.

Tiflis, April 28.—An attempt by a peasant band to maltreat a rich farmer and a priest led to a collision with police and troops, in which three peasants were killed and 12 wounded. Other attacks by the peasantry on members of the wealthier and educated classes are feared.

Old Grudge.

Charleston, W. Va., April 28.—In a shooting affray at Rend, Ellisha McIntyre, a mine contractor of Ashland, was killed, and Bruce Meyers, a special constable, was arrested charged with the murder. The shooting is said to have been the result of an old grudge.

Bigelow Liabilities.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 28.—The latest step in the career of Frank G. Bigelow, the former bank president, who defaulted in the sum of $1,500,000, is the filing of a petition in involuntary bankruptcy. The revised schedules show a total liability on the part of Mr. Bigelow of $3,277,000, of which $1,975,000 is wholly or in part secured. Of the remainder $1,110,000 is a secondary liability on notes and bills discounted, in which Bigelow figures as indorser. These items are notes of the National Electric company, the Grand Rapids Edison company and S. W. Watkins, and are evidently connected with the financing of the National Electric company. The balance, $192,000, represents unsecured loans, the largest one being an indebtedness of $100,000 to the Broadhead estate, of which Bigelow was executor. The assets of the banker are estimated at $1,849,800, against which a homestead exemption of $5,000 is placed.

Want Sheriff's Scalp.

Hempstead, Tex., April 28.—At a meeting held here resolutions have been adopted asking Sheriff Lipscomb to resign, that a ranger be appointed sheriff to execute the laws. The sheriff answered that it was a move of his enemies, that he would not resign, and that the laws were being enforced. He disclaims any reason for believing that he could have prevented the recent killing of the four men had he been here.

Fire in a Mine.

Trinidad, Colo., April 28.—Fire broke out in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company mine at Picton. A number of miners narrowly escaped death, several being overcome by smoke. The fire is still burning fiercely.

A Mother's Recommendation.

I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a number of years and have no hesitancy in saying that it is the best remedy for coughs, colds, and croup I have ever used in my family. I have not words to express my confidence in this remedy.—Mrs. J. A. Moore, North Star, Mich.

Court Rules Out Letters.

New York, April 23.—Mrs. Margaret Young, widow of Caesar Young, was on the stand in the trial of Nan Patterson, and as she testified her eyes would fill with tears. Nan Patterson dropped her eyes when she saw the widow. Josiah D. Millen, Young's partner, was another witness, and told of the relations between Young and Nan Patterson. The prosecution endeavored to introduce in evidence a letter purporting to show that Miss Patterson had other admirers at the time she professed to be devoted to Young. This letter, however, was not admitted as evidence. The letter that Mrs. J. Morgan Smith, sister of the defendant, wrote to Caesar Young, in which she said Miss Patterson was "frantic," and which was admitted at the previous trial, was also ruled out. The conspiracy charge against the Smiths was based on the letter.

PUBLIC APPROVAL OF THE VERDICT

Victory of Vic Henderson in Criminal Case Thought To Be Fitting.

The verdict of "not guilty" by the jury in the case of Victor Henderson charged with robbery, meets with the approval of the majority of the people who are familiar with the circumstances of the case. Opinion is divided as to whether Victor Henderson is really guilty or not but if a previous record for integrity and general stability of character should have anything to do in determining his guilt or innocence the only probably conclusion that could be reached was that, except by a sudden drop from grace in a moment of weakness Victor Henderson could not have stooped to such a crime.

The staunch manner in which his wife and mother stood by him throughout the trial undoubtedly impressed the jury favorably. His wife spoke in the highest terms of her husband in his home life. When asked concerning his treatment of her she replied "I guess I haven't any fault to find. Vic hardly ever goes up street at night and he is always in by eight o'clock."

Perhaps the weakest point in Vic Henderson's story was that part in which he recited how the two Rivers boys went with him and Jacob Decker down the river on a fishing excursion on the night of the robbery. He said that, as they had a sixty-eight foot seine, he suggested to Decker that they ought to have some one to help them.

"Never mind about that," was Decker's reply.

After getting the sample wagon and team at Markley's barn Henderson stated that they had driven down past the ball park and just as they reached the bend in the road at the foot of Mulberry street Alva and Verna Rivers clambered up over the bank and got into the wagon. The question might arise, why was it necessary that the Rivers boys should be concealed down along the river to wait for Decker and Henderson if it was only to be a quiet fishing trip. On the other hand, with the exception of Verna Rivers' testimony there was little to show that was not merely a fishing excursion so far as Vic Henderson was concerned.

The verdict came in a few minutes after three o'clock just as The Age was on the press. The presses were stopped and brief mention was made of the verdict although it did not get in all the papers. Most of the city edition however contained the news which was being awaited with so much interest.

The next hour after the verdict was read one of the happiest in the lives of Victor Henderson and his wife and mother. They gathered in the corridor of the court house down stairs and held a kind of congratulatory meeting and love feast.

It is believed that the jury acted wisely in not sending Victor Henderson to the Ohio penitentiary. He was punished bitterly during the past few months and had been imprisoned in those gloomy walls among hardened criminals his whole life might have been blighted; while as it is he will go back to his home with his character firm and with a determination never to get into the toils of the law again.

the New York and Bermudez company or from any one acting in its interest or behalf. On my final departure from Venezuela as minister, I had money in a bank in Caracas. I wished to convert my Venezuelan money into United States money, and I exchanged checks at the posted United States government rates with the manager of the New York and Bermudez company at Caracas, my check to the company calling for Venezuelan money and his check to me calling for United States money. It was a simple business transaction. The preposterous nature of this charge affecting my official integrity is shown by the fact that whatever I did and all I did in giving my official support as United States minister to the New York and Bermudez company was done in obedience to instructions from the secretary of state, and was approved by him after full reports of the entire controversy from its inception."
